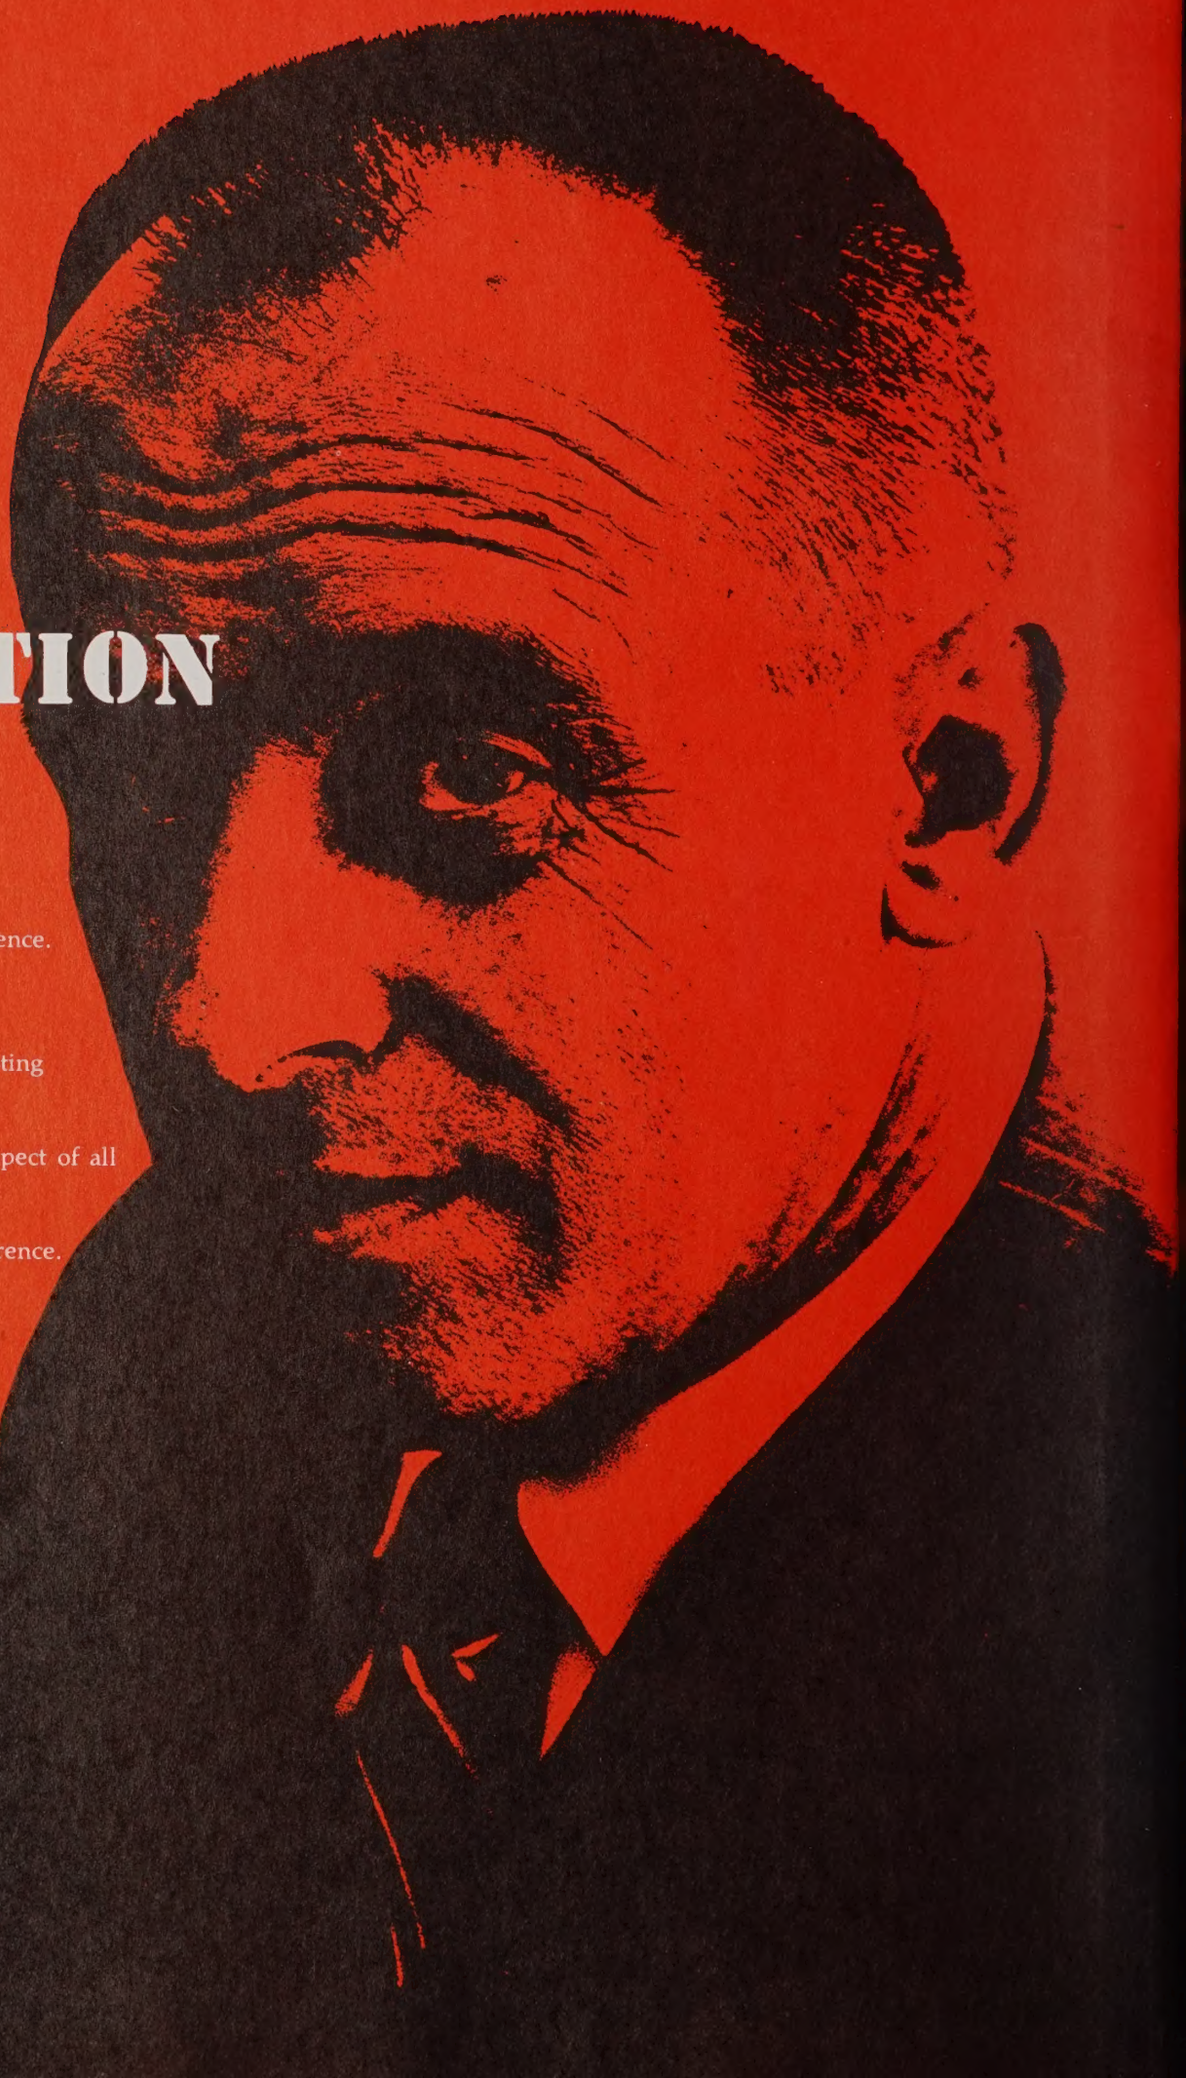
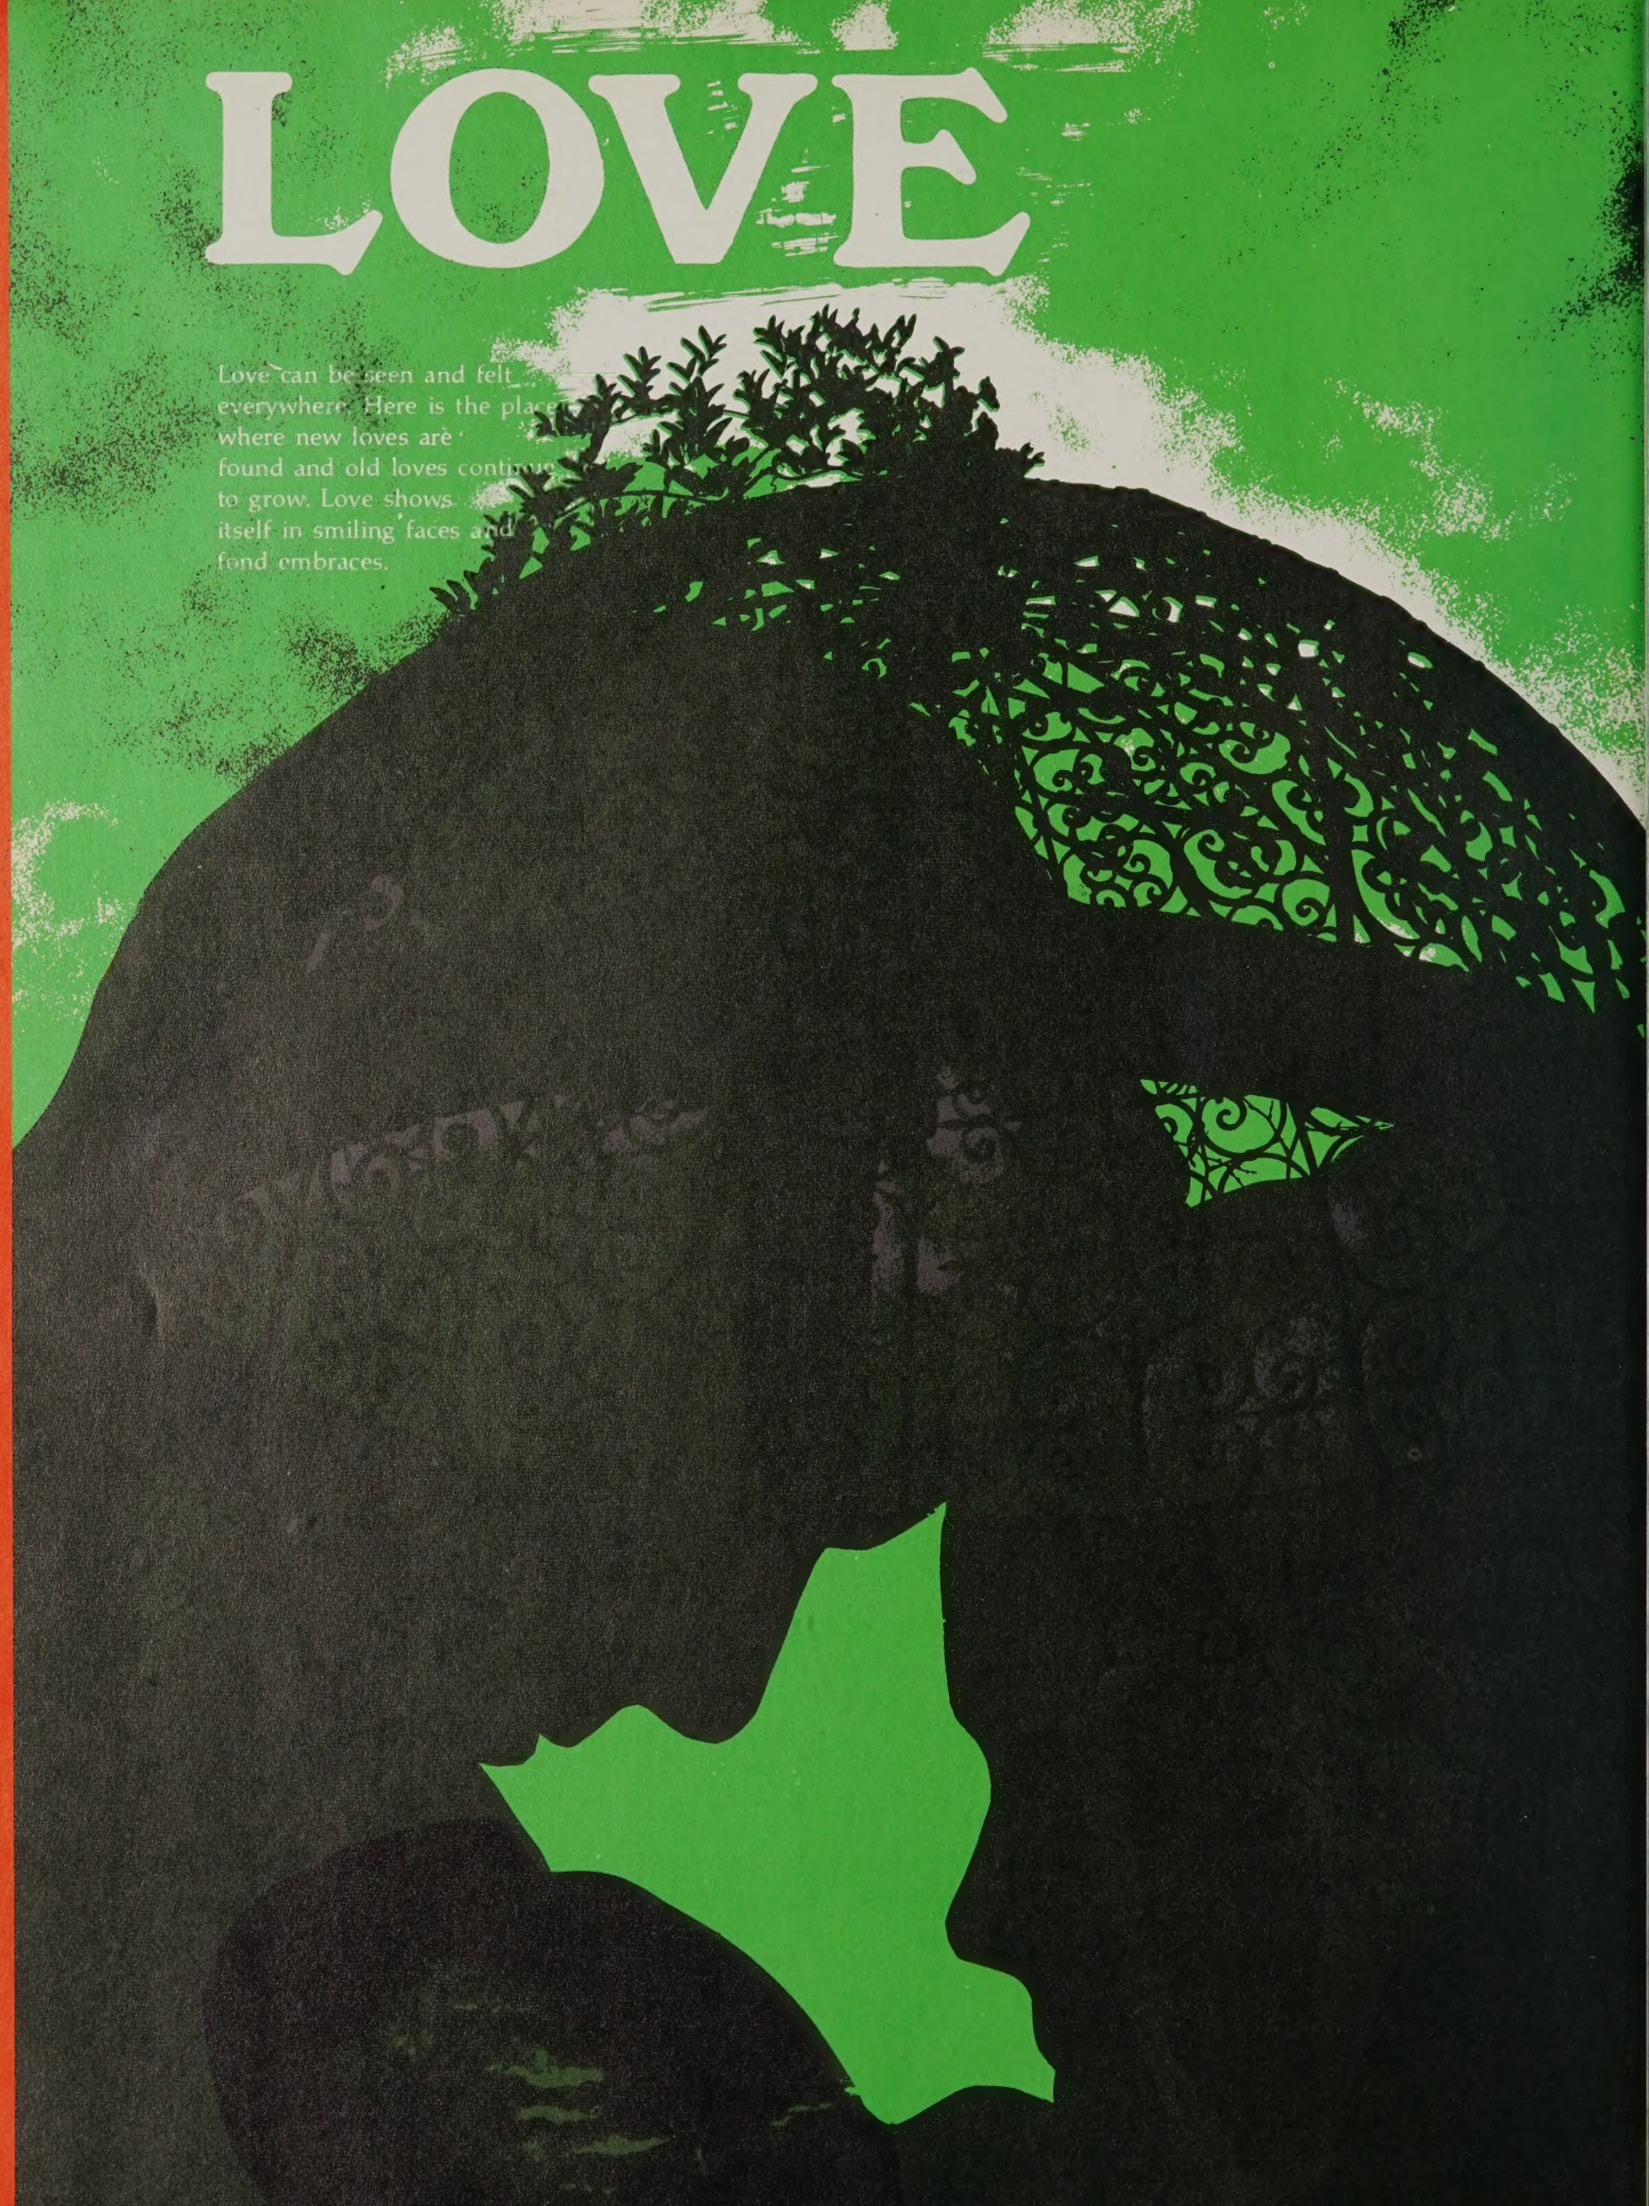
DEDICATION

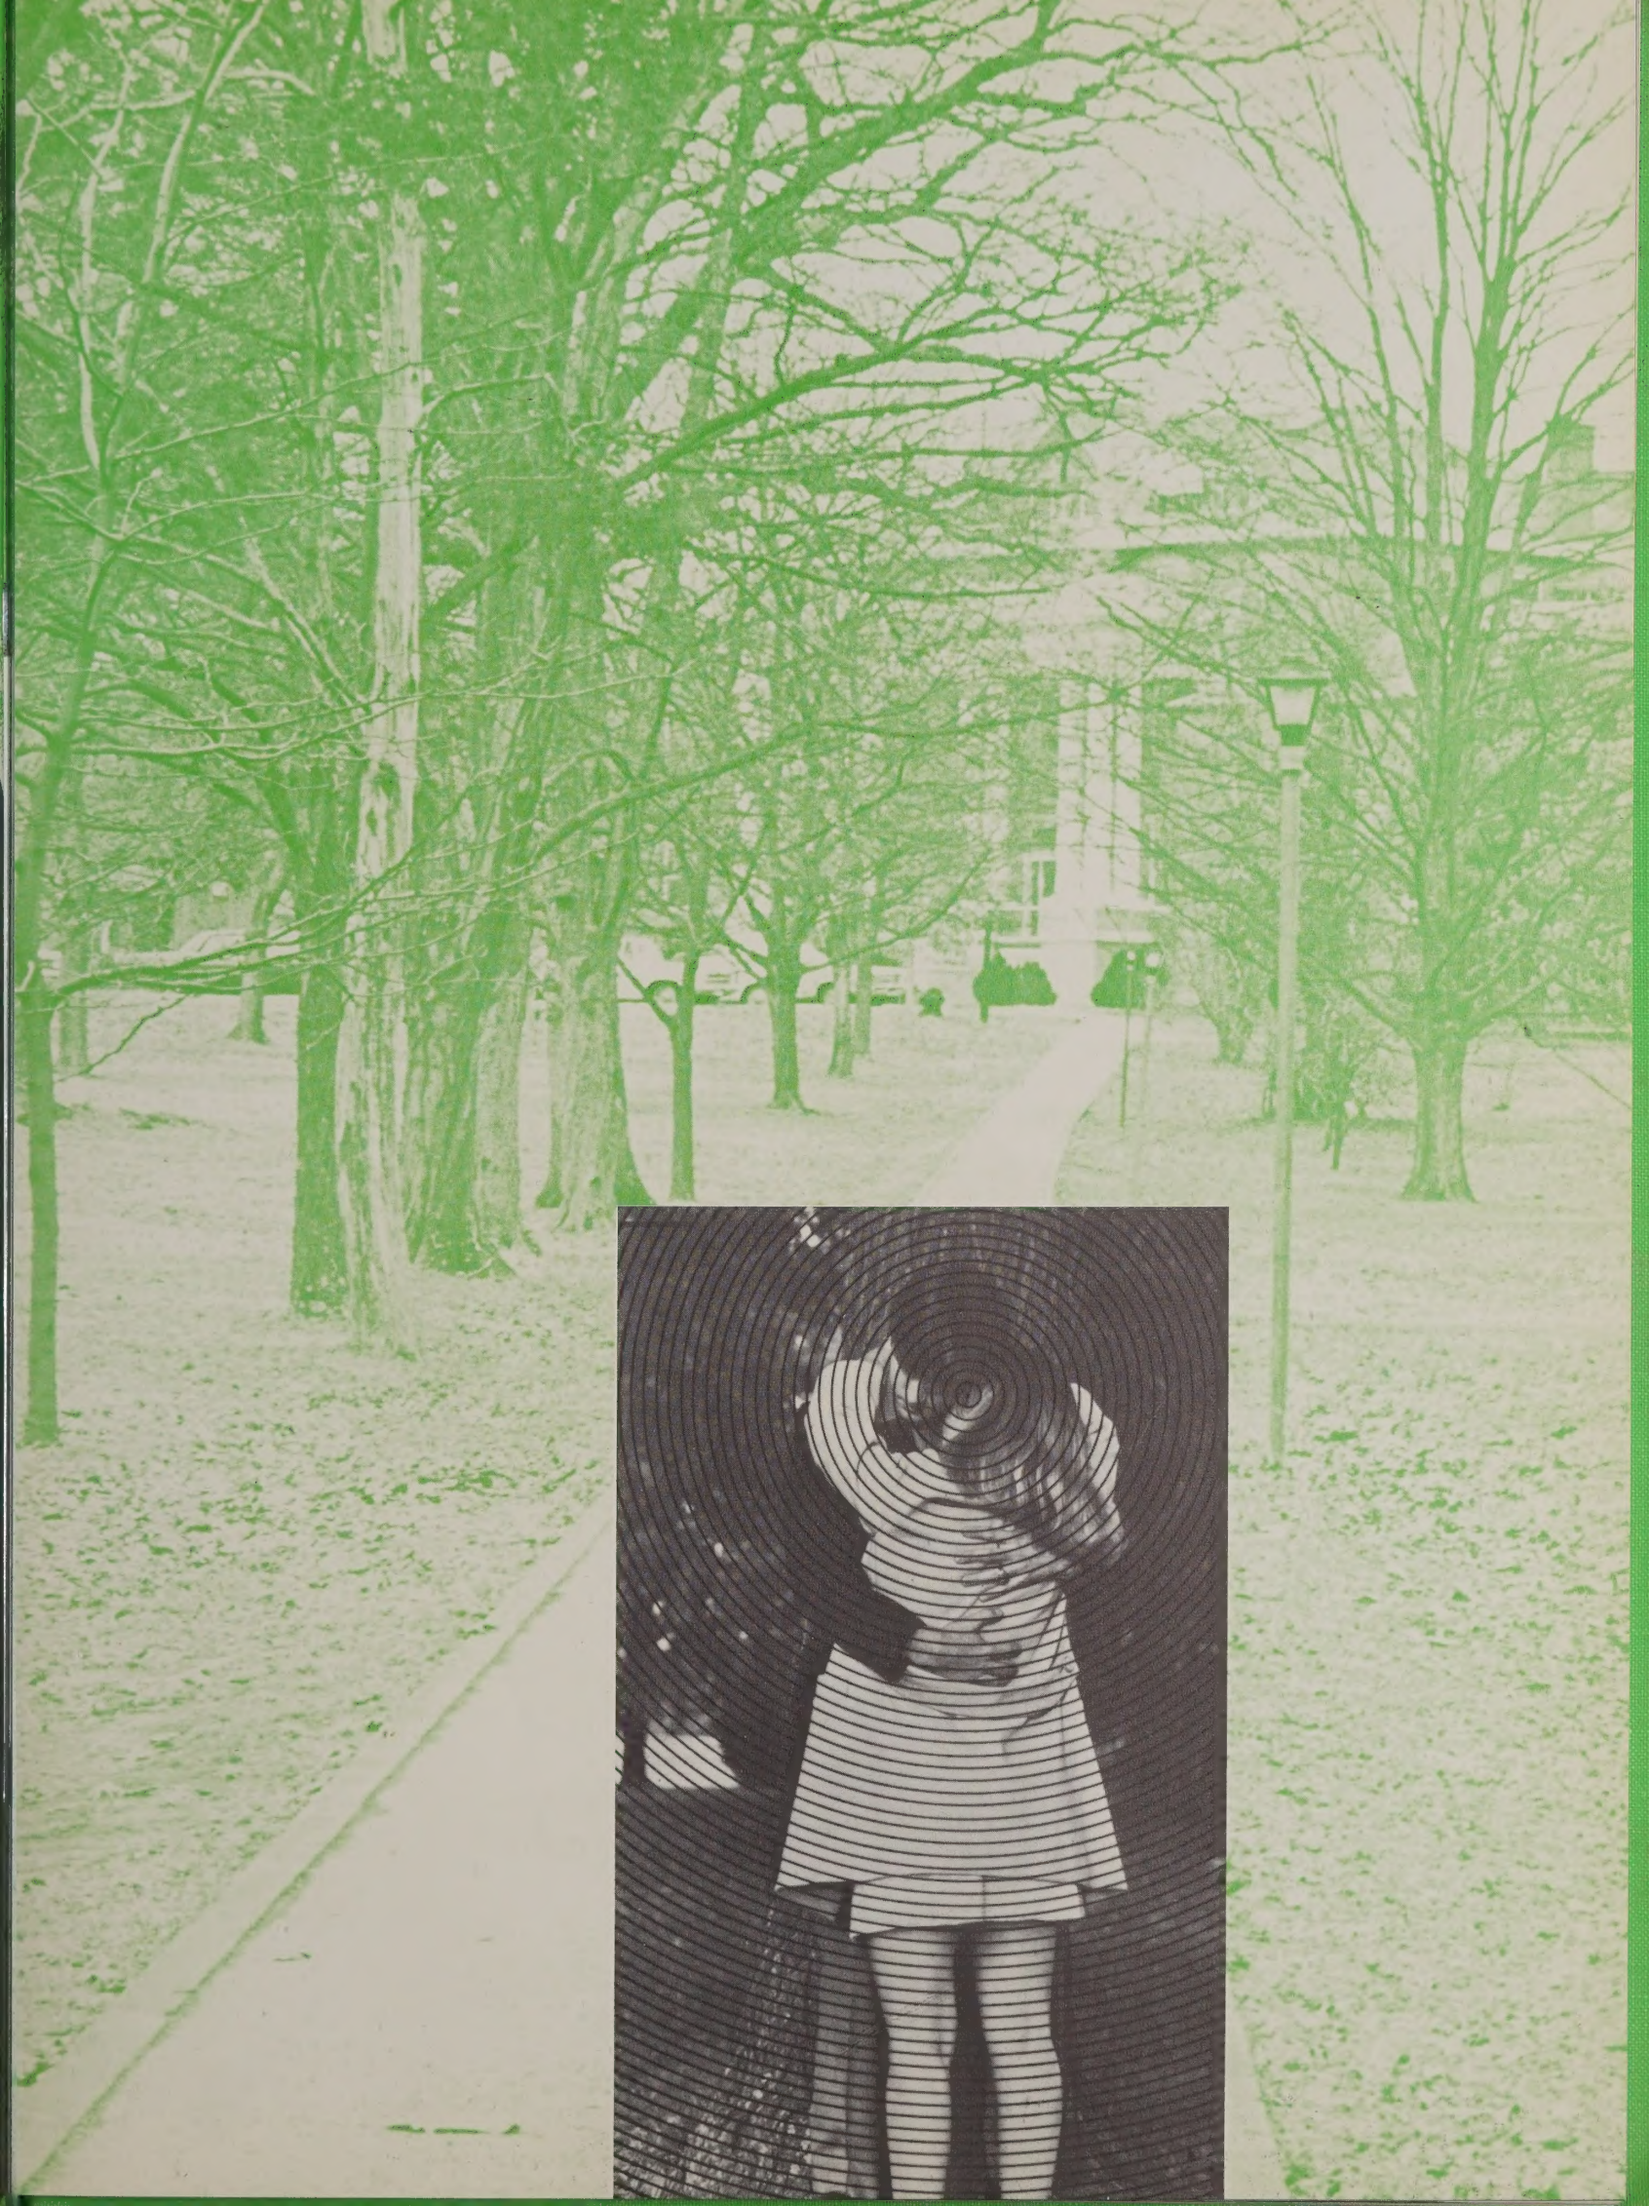


Mr. Lawrence is more than just a teacher at St. Mary's. To the Administration he is a leader, heading the Mathematics Department and striving for cooperation and academic excellence. Yet to each St. Mary's girl Mr. Lawrence is a friend. No problem cannot be solved by his familiar wink and smile. Attempting to know and understand each girl individually, not as she appears to be, Mr. Lawrence has gained the respect of all St. Mary's girls. With deep pride and love, we the Seniors of 1970 dedicate our Stagecoach to Mr. Lawrence.

LOVE

Love can be seen and felt everywhere. Here is the place where new loves are found and old loves continue to grow. Love shows itself in smiling faces and fond embraces.

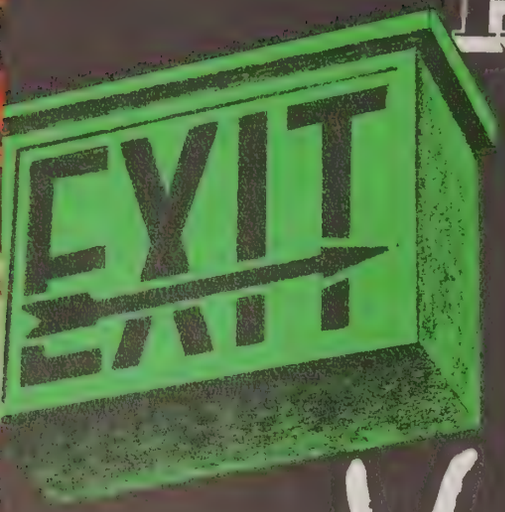




RELAXATION

Relaxation is the factor which enables us to survive the rugged school year. Football games, fairs, bridge, television, extravagant shopping, and dates make life easier and much more bearable.

HANGOUTS



Because of the busy schedule of a St. Mary's girl, a student may have difficulty finding time to visit the usual hangouts. On Sunday nights most girls are found at the Char-Grill. The chief hangout is Melvin's "Little Store" where the girls can stuff themselves and catch up on the gossip. The P.R. is always crowded on Friday afternoon.

DORMS

Dorms are the places where we can unwind after a hard
day, play bridge, talk to friends, and sleep. They are places where new friendships
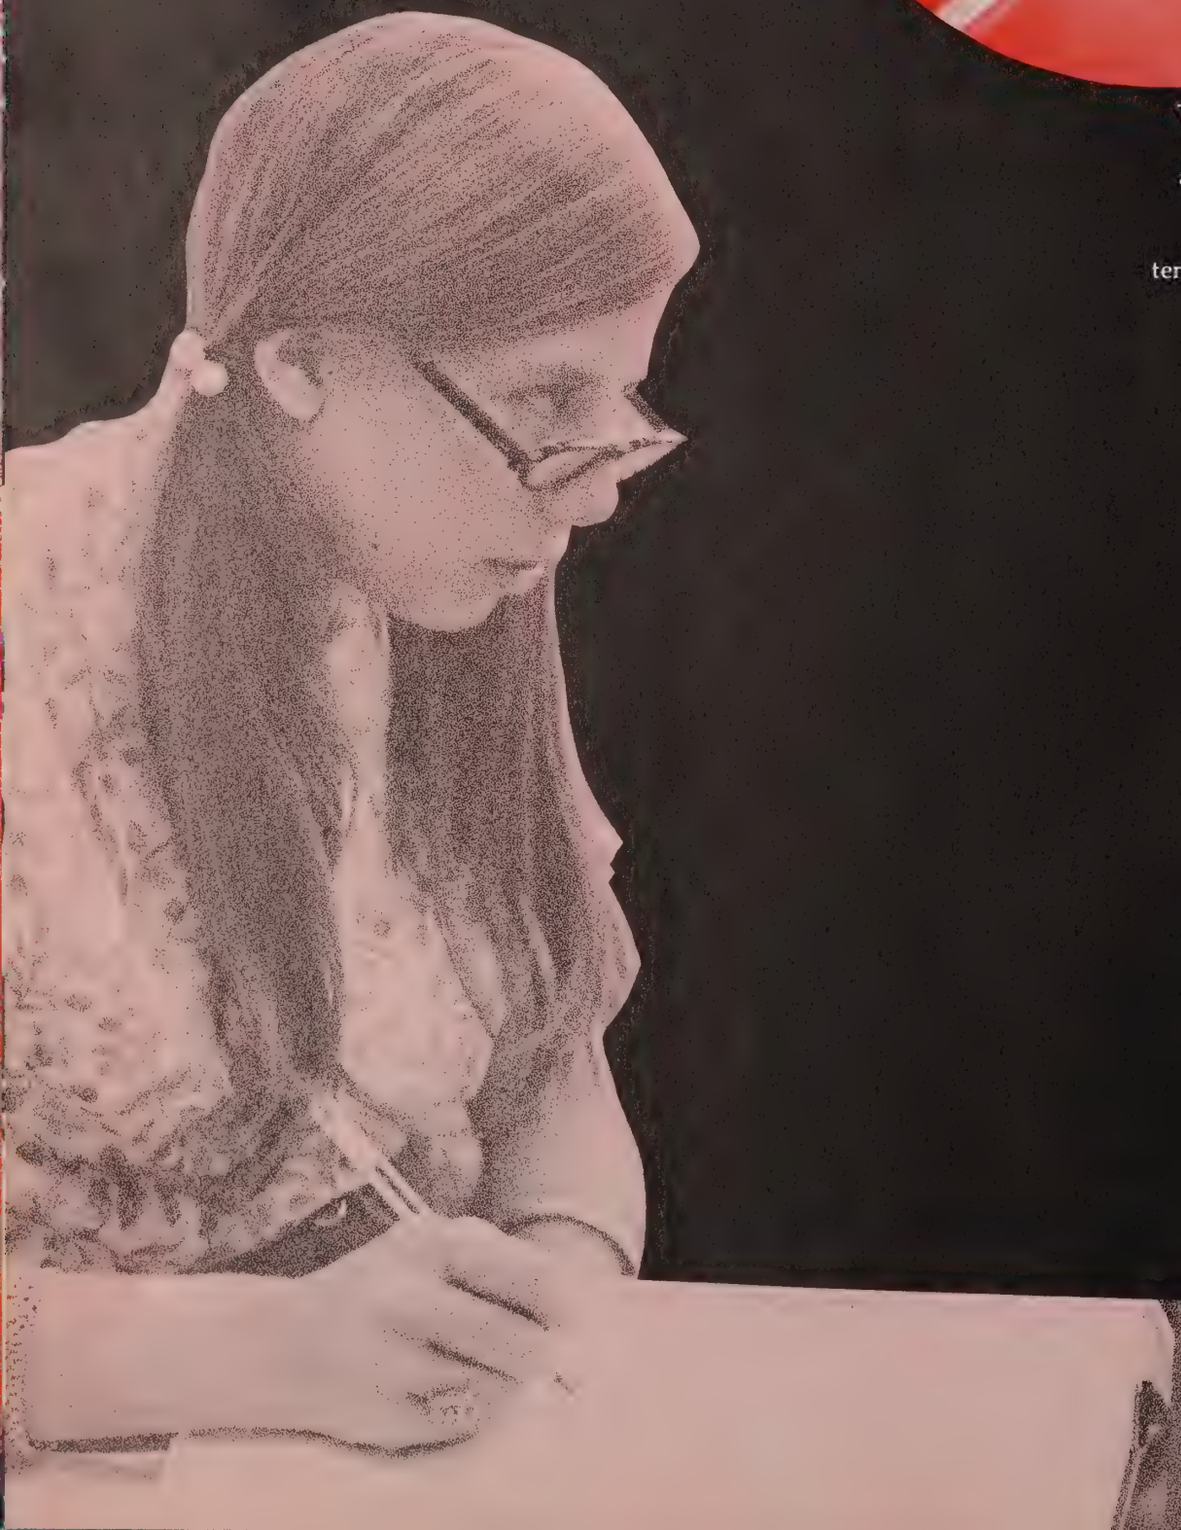
are made and where girls learn to live together.

The girls of St. Mary's are noted for being some of the best dressed girls around. Monday through Friday campus life is, however, a different story. Raincoats often come in handy in the mornings. Pins and lavaliers certainly add that extra touch.

DRESS

TENSION

Tension is common to everyone. Pale, haggard faces after an ordeal with the Honor Board, circles and jittery nerves after cramming for mid-terms, and the prospect of meeting a blind date all contribute to this ever present feeling.



STUDY

Study is that never-ending task that one never quite manages to complete. Lab practicals, term papers, and long vigils in the library make up the student's daily academic life.

ACADEMICS

Dramatics comes alive when taught by Mrs. Stamey.

A contemplative Lucia Drury checks her finished product.

Giving a speech in front of the whole class is always a nerve-wracking experience.

ART MUSIC
DRAMA

Mr. Peery explains the flats of music to the student.

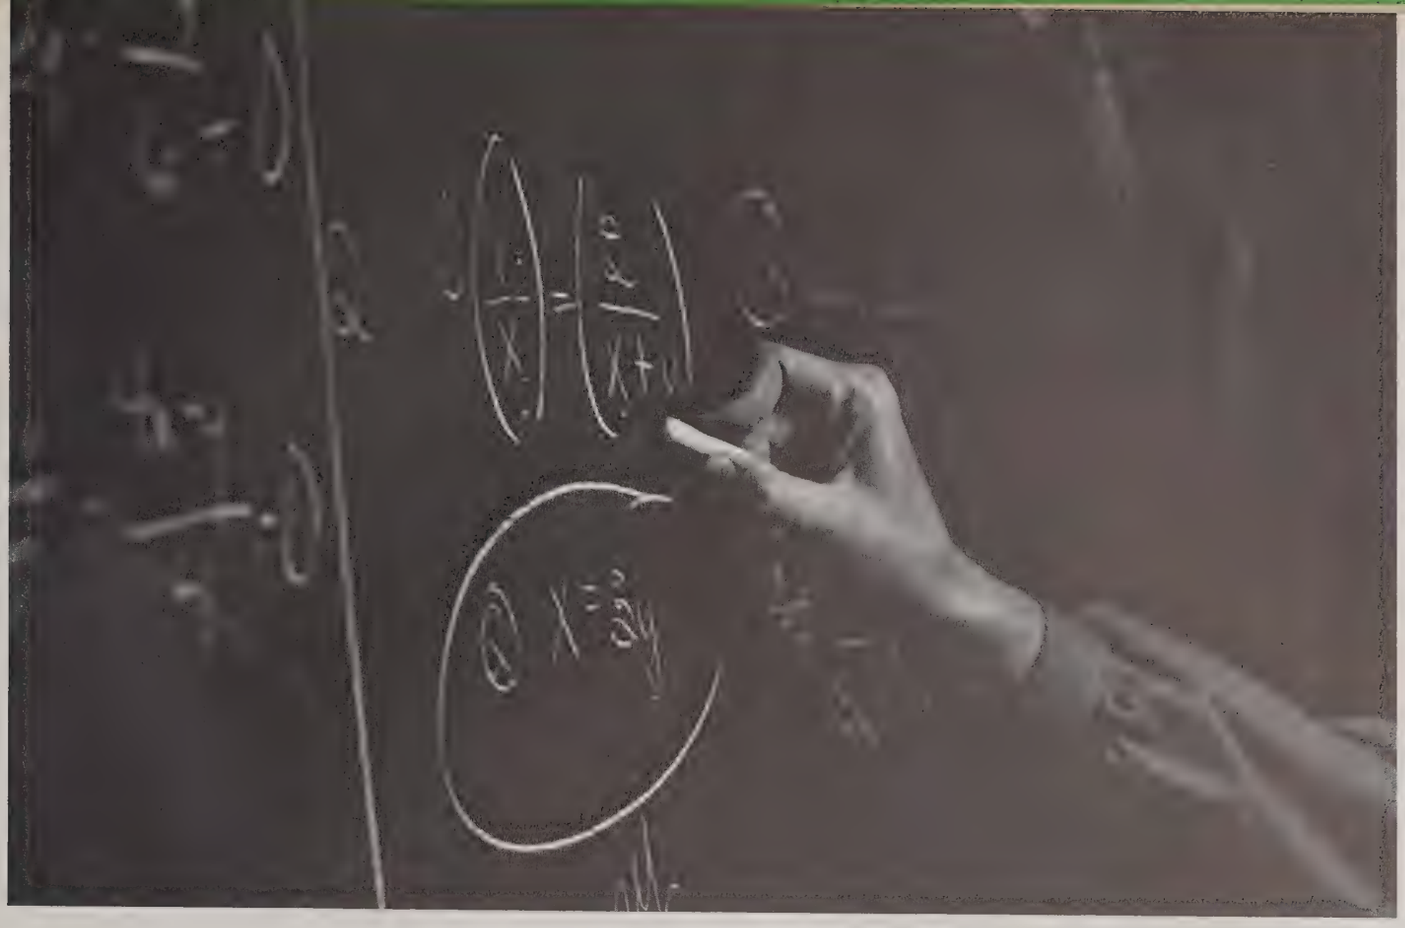
RELIGION

Mary Austin and Binnie Bartow enjoy chapel.

"Hear the echoes of the music . . ."

Bible isn't all Adam and Eve.

MATH



Thank goodness for blackboards!

It's not unusual for math students to look worried.

ENGLISH

Betsy Wharton operates the projector in English.

Marsh Pully listens and learns the Canterbury Tales.

Does anybody recognize this desk?

Does Mr. Serxner enjoy discussing grades?

SCIENCE

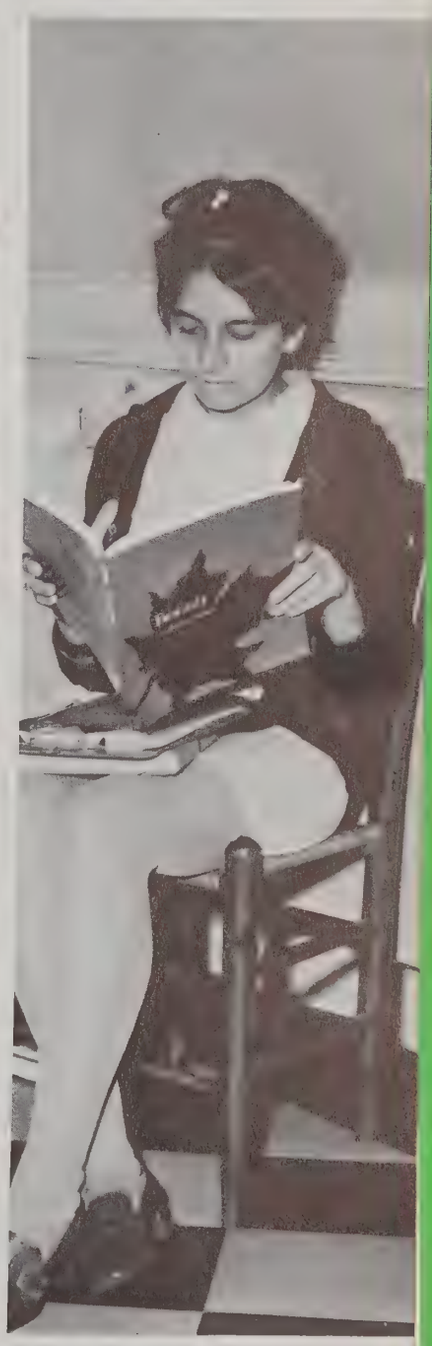
For that burning sensation . . .

Anatomy can be fun!

Anna Robinson discovers some of life's secrets.

"Mr. King and company"

Study May!



Mr. Weiner's students get a kick out of the skeleton.

Mrs. Beam gladly gives change for a telephone call.

Mr. Brooker diligently plans the weekly meals.

Sherry Graham entertains at the Halloween party.

Nurse Smith gives Mary Vance a super pill.

ACTIVITIES

ORIENTATION

THE CRUCIBLE

Arthur Miller's The Crucible was presented to the faculty and students of St. Mary's as well as to the public on November 24 and 25, 1969. Our Mrs. Stamey directed the play, staged by the Dramatics Club. As well as talent contributed by St. Mary's students and faculty (Mr. Lawrence), the play also included the acting of such well known players as Jimmie Thiem.

HALLOWEEN

Emmy, Ann, Florence, and Collins make an adorable foursome!

What if she hates apples???

Some people thought that clobbering the SGA officers was the most fun!

It's hard to have a good dance without males, but we tried.

All the kids (young and old) listen to our favorite Santa Claus at the Christmas party.

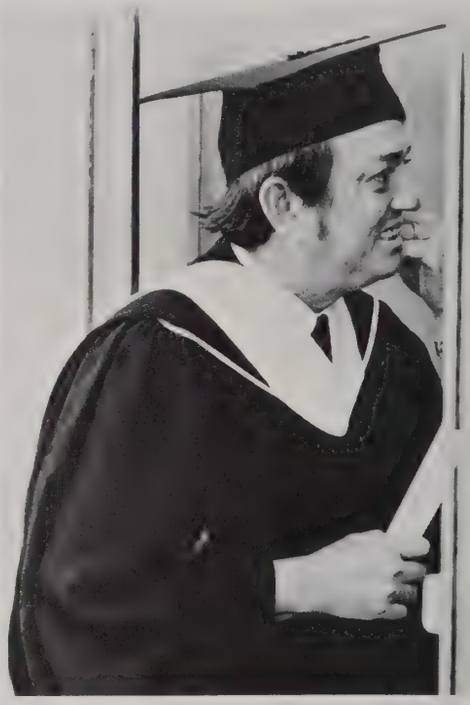
CHRISTMAS

The Cold Cuts looked like Christmas Cuts!

INAUGURATION

November 14, 1969 was a very special day in the history of St. Mary's. The Rev. Frank Warren Pisani was inducted as the ninth head of our school. On that Friday every student had the St. Mary's family spirit as she watched an event which would bring progress and new opportunities.

Inauguration activities began with an outdoor luncheon.



Faculty members were reminded of their college days.

A day for everyone who is part of St. Mary's . . .

On the faces of two beloved presidents — feelings of love and devotion.

Excitement was evident even at the reception.

ORGANIZATIONS

SGA

The SGA serves as a factor which unifies the St. Mary's student body. New students in particular look to the Student Government Association for guidance. Not only does the SGA have many administative duties, but they also have to do a lot of the dirty work, such as check for chapel and concert cutters.

The association strove for unity and progress during the 1969-70 year.

ASSISTANTS

Cafeteria assistants: Florence Spruill, Student Manager Lou Latham, Jane Weaver.

Library assistants: Ekky Foss, Melissa Ogle, Melissa Sanders.

MUSE

One can do her own thing when she contributes to St. Mary's literary magazine, the Muse. In addition to the literature itself, another feature is the unusual art work. Editor Jane Upton and staff worked hard to create this year's several issues.

BELLES

The Belles is a traditional St. Mary's publication which each student looks forward to receiving. Dru Haley and her staff published an enlightening, gossip-filled, and exciting Belles newspaper twice each month during the '69-'70 year.

Business Manager Jane Wood and Joanne Wilkins assign the ads.

Assistant Editor Lucia Drury and Editor Mary Vance look for help!

Special Editors Scotty Uzzell, Jenni Smith, Fran Suthers, and Allison Davis schedule pictures.

A member of the Stagecoach staff realizes better than most people how hard it is to make ends meet. The 1969-70 staff has made a particular effort to move the yearbook into a contemporary form. New ideas and original poses have been stressed more than ever. The most important addition is the summer supplement which the students will receive in August.

The yearbook staff strives to meet the deadline.
